FIRE BRIGADE TURNS ROSE ON RIOTING JEWS

Zionist Delegates at Basle Congress Have Two Fights on First Day.

NORDAU EULOGIZES HERZL

Basle, Switzerland, July 27.—More than 1000 Jews took part today among the delegates to the Zionist Congress held here. At the conclusion of the day's session, a most service in honor of Theodor Herzl was held in the synagogue. The United Republic of the synagogue made it known that for all to gain entrance and the right for admission was secured. The police were unable to cope with the fighting crowds and it was necessary to summon a street force which finally dispersed the people by turning several high pressure streams of water upon the rioters. Order was then restored.

First Fight at Opening.
The hall in which the congress will meet was opened at 8 o'clock, and a fight immediately was precipitated by the delegates, who struggled to secure the best seats. A number of desperate encounters between delegates followed, and sticks and revolvers were freely used. Many Jews were injured, and the police were unable to keep order. The delegates attacked the broken parts of the hall which they could not get into, and the police were forced to use force to restore order.

Eulogy on Herzl.
The chair was taken at the commencement of the session by Dr. Nordau, president of the congress, who delivered an eulogy on the late Theodor Herzl, the organizer and founder of the Zionist movement. Dr. Nordau referred to the congress with much enthusiasm, and declared that it was a great opportunity for the Jewish people to express their feelings and to show their solidarity.

SLIDING GAS SCALE HEARING IS ADJOURNED

No Evidence Presented to Special Commission at State House To-day.

The hearing at the State House which had been scheduled for to-day on the proposed sliding scale of gas prices was adjourned by the committee appointed to report to the next Legislature on the subject, until October 5. This committee includes the three members of the Massachusetts Gas & Electric Light Commission, Messrs. Barker, Schafl and George, and the two members of the Massachusetts Gas and Electric Light Committee of Hyde Park. The application

The committee was ready for the hearing to-day, but other persons interested stated that they were not prepared at present to offer their suggestions. Frederick E. Snow appeared before the Consolidated Gas Company, James I. Richards, president of that company, was present also.

Company Gathering Facts.

Attorney Snow informed the committee

"A great mass of facts is now being prepared for us in London," said Mr. Snow.

"When we have received and digested these facts we shall have some suggestions to make to the committee. We shall not receive this evidence, however, until about October 1."

A. M. Richards of Cambridge asked whether the committee was to consider the question of the quality and measurement of gas and was informed by chairman Barker that the committee might take up the matter at the subsequent hearing. Conrad Reno of Brookline addressed the committee, saying that, at a later date, he
